ICR Women's Classic Golf Tournament Empowers Women in Saskatoon

The ICR Women's Classic Golf Tournament in Saskatoon stands as a testament to the power of community-driven initiatives. The charity golf tournament organized by a volunteer committee at ICR is not just about swings and putts; it is a day filled with laughter, companionship, and a shared commitment to making a difference. Held at a picturesque golf course in Saskatoon, the tournament features competitive rounds, skill challenges, and networking opportunities.

This event not only celebrates the love for the sport but also aims to make a meaningful impact by supporting worthy causes like Hope Restored, 30 Birds Foundation, the Women's Business Hub and Hope's Home along with other local female centered organizations and individual bursaries. The tournament brings together women from all walks of life, fostering a sense of camaraderie while contributing to the empowerment of women in our community.

This event not only raises funds but also creates awareness about the challenges faced by women in different facets of life. Through the collective efforts of participants, organizers, and sponsors, this tournament left an indelible mark on Saskatoon's philanthropic landscape, exemplifying the positive change that can be achieved when a community comes together for a common cause.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Empowering Women:

The tournament is specifically designed to celebrate and empower women. Participants include professionals, entrepreneurs, and community leaders who come together to support the cause.

Community Engagement:

Local businesses and sponsors rally behind the event, contributing not only financially but also by providing prizes, giveaways, and additional support. The sense of community is palpable, showcasing Saskatoon's commitment to making a positive impact.

Fundraising Activities:

In addition to the tournament entry fees, various fundraising activities, such as silent auctions and donation drives, were organized to maximize the contributions to the chosen charities.
